

United States Customs Service, Treasury

§ 174.2

of excess duties, fees, charges, or exactions.

[T.D. 85-123, 50 FR 29957, July 23, 1985]

§ 173.5 Review of entry covering household or personal effects.

An error in the liquidation of an entry covering household or personal effects may be corrected by the port director even though a timely protest was not filed if an application for refund is filed with the port director within 1 year after the date of the entry and no waiver of compliance with applicable regulations is involved other than a waiver which the port director has authority to grant. Where the port director has no authority to grant the waiver, the application shall be referred to the Commissioner of Customs.

§ 173.6 Review of entry for fraud.

The port director may review any entry in which fraud is suspected. Where probable cause to believe there is fraud in the case is found by the port director, he may reliquidate an entry within 2 years (exclusive of the time during which a protest is pending) after the date of liquidation or last reliquidation.
